

Tips for Tuning-In

You can tune in at any point along the tour however it is recommended to begin at Punt Road Landing Listening Station and conclude at MacRobertson Bridge Listening Station.

Begin your tour by tuning into the introduction track and finish your tour by tuning into the conclusion track.

Audio Tour tracks can be downloaded from the Stonnington website prior to visiting the Yarra or live streamed from the listening stations.

stonnington.vic.gov.au/tuneinyarra

For more information:

stonnington.vic.gov.au/biodiversity

The City of Stonnington has a range of environmental events and programs on offer, designed to assist residents, businesses, schools and early learning centres to become more sustainable.

To find out more visit

stonnington.vic.gov.au/sustainability or contact Council on 8290 1333.

 stonningtoncouncil

 StonningtonNews

Tune  Into

The Life of the Yarra Audiotour

Explore the Yarra's winding course, delve into the past and discover some small local wonders of our natural world

City of STONNINGTON

City of
STONNINGTON

The Life of the Yarra Audiotour

Tune  Into

How to Tune-In

1. Visit stonnington.vic.gov.au/tuneinyarra
2. Select the listening station closest to you as shown on the map below.
3. Look out for the animal tracks that will lead to the next listening station.

