

Accessibility upgrades to public toilets Hedgeley Dene Gardens

About the project

The City of Stonnington is upgrading the toilets at Hedgeley Dene Gardens to make them accessible to people of all abilities. The project is expected to take 12 weeks to complete, with temporary toilet facilities provided while upgrade works are underway. We recognise works of this nature will cause some inconvenience. Every effort will be made to keep disruption to a minimum and we thank you in advance for your patience and understanding.

January to April 2025 (estimated)
7am to 6pm (Monday to Friday)

Hedgeley Dene Gardens will remain open during the works. The toilets being upgraded will be closed and temporary facilities provided.

There may be some impact to the access along the path when drainage upgrade works are being carried out. If this occurs, signage will be in place to direct pedestrians safely around the work zone.

Access to all other areas of the park will be maintained at all times.
